

Hometown Hero Announcement (to go out on Jan. 15)

The American Legion Post 363 and the Lucasville Area Historical Society are pleased to announce the Military Hometown Hero Banner Program being launched on January 15, 2020. The banners will honor those who are currently or have valiantly served with the U.S. Armed Forces including those who died in the line of duty.

Applications may be submitted by U.S. Mail until March 1. The first 14 complete applications will be selected for 2020 and the next 14 will receive first consideration for 2021. The banners will go up mid May and come down after the 4th of July and returned to the sponsor of the honoree.

You may pick up applications at Gahm's or Holbrook's Hometown Pharmacies. You may also find an application online at the Lucasville Area Historical Society website at www.lucasvilleohio1819.com.
